On Sorcery / Black Magic

Some people say that going to and believing words of 'Sorcery Dissolve Consultant' about human problems is forbidden according to Shariah. – 'Sorcery Dissolve Consultants' are not fortuneteller / foreteller / soothsayers, they giving you the information of what happened to you in past and happening now, so these are not Haram / forbidden. Moreover black-magic / witch does human who are in the Universe and these are implemented by Jinn-Shaytan who are in the Universe too. Inhabitants of haven or Angels do not do sorcery. According Hadith there is a Jinn Shaitan with every human[1]. It knows what are you doing. If someone sorcerize other human, his Jinn knows it and it tells this news to Sorcery Dissolve Consultant's Jinn when asked. Sorcery jobs commits in the Universe by Shaytan and these information are collected by Muslim Jinns and then 'Sorcery Dissolve Consultants' supply you the same. These information can't be fortunetelling.

Sorcerers / Witch cast a spell over someone / something which vanishes in the air. They write (hex in piece of paper) / amulet / talisman which remain out of the body even away from whom these are cast. Then how the man become sick or he faces loss? How the witch be effective? There are third party who implement / make effective / affect the man over whom witch was cast. This third party is Shaytan Jinn. It causes harm / disease in the man's body or make loss / accident / derail the man for which motive the witch was cast.

There is no words more effective than words of ALLAH and all strengths in the creatures came from HIM.

There are sorcery / witchcraft treatment consultants in each community and of each religion. Sorcery treatment consultants other than a true slave of ALLAH have laid out business of Shaytan. They aren't true sorcery / witch dissolver. Pure Momin (true slave of ALLAH) is the only dissolver to black magic and threat to Shaitan (Jinn or Human). Besides going to, believing and administering the incantations / amulets of a non-muslim consultant are Shirk and Kufr.

The human who has not suffered from Shaytan (Jinn or human) here, he will surely fall victim of Shaytan hereafter. - It is my assertion.
